

2023-2024 Graduate Assistant Position Content Focus Latinx/a/o Students

About MSA

Multicultural Student Affairs (MSA) is one of three departments within Campus Inclusion and Community (CI) at Northwestern University. Our mission is to enrich the cultural experience of Northwestern through leadership and education programming, providing opportunities for community engagement and identity expression; and assisting students in navigating the University.

About the Graduate Assistant Position

Graduate Assistant (GA) in MSA will gain valuable skills that can be transferred to any area within higher education and beyond. Each GA will be supervised by one of our five full-time staff members, who each serve as a content expert for one of the following student communities: African-American/Black, Asian, Pacific Islander, and Desi American (APIDA); Latino/a/x; Native American/Indigenous; and Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Queer. In addition to working with a specific student community, the GA is also given the opportunity to work across communities through collaborations and partnerships. The GA will be responsible for supporting the academic and social goals and learning outcomes of the student community they serve.

Applicants must be from a U.S. state, territory, or possession, or be a permanent resident of the United States. By applying for this position, you are agreeing to this start date. The graduate assistantship begins with a two-day mandatory training that will take place on September 13-14, 2023. To be successful in your position, it is critical that GAs attend the entirety of the training.

The hourly rate for this position is $18.00 per hour with a maximum of 20 hours each week. GAs will work with their supervisor to set a weekly schedule. GAs are only permitted to work when Northwestern classes are in session; not during

To apply, please fill out the CIC Graduate Assistant Application Form X
Applications will be accepted and reviewed until the position is filled.

About N